5. OLD BUSINESS:

a. Halloween Costume Ball:

The members talked about last minute things they could do prior to the start of their Halloween Ball which included adding some more decorations. Some members questioned why some tables were marked "reserved" and Mrs. Pellon responded that some of the older members who come to the center would not attend the ball unless they had a table reserved for them.

6. NEW BUSINESS:

a. Goal for December – "Santa's North Pole"

1 Some of the members agreed to be available Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December
2 7th, 8th and 9th to help with decorating the library auditorium for the Santa's North Pole event
3 scheduled to open on Saturday, December 11th. These included Rose Miller, Mary Micelli and 4 Beverly Pellon. Mrs. Brown indicated that the decorating would be done during day time hours
5 when the library is open.
6

7 This would be the committee's last goal for 2010 and Mrs. Brown reminded them to start
8 thinking about their goals for 2011 to be discussed at the November meeting.
